To Whom it May Concern,

As part of Google's growing efforts to support excellent research in academia, we are pleased, effective September 1, 2013, to award the Hebrew University of Jerusalem an unrestricted gift of $66,626 to support Professor Alon Peled. We understand Professor Alon Peled currently intends to use this gift towards "Building the Public Sector Information Exchange (PSIE)".

This is an unrestricted gift; however, we would appreciate receiving news of Professor Alon Peled's activities in a mutually agreeable manner, through copies of reports, publications, status letters, etc. and we would appreciate receiving attribution or acknowledgment of our gift in applicable University publications. It is our hope that the researcher(s) will consider releasing any code or data from the project under an open source permissive license such as the Apache license. In addition, Google would like to receive periodic updates on the progress of the project. Please be advised that nothing in this letter should be interpreted or construed as creating or establishing the relationship of employer or employee between the researchers and Google.

Please have an authorized individual of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem sign in the space provided below to evidence the Hebrew University of Jerusalem's acceptance of this gift, and return this page to us at the following:
