האוניברסיטה
העברית
בירושלים
THE HEBREW
UNIVERSITY OF JERUSALEM

Are you interested in:

- An interdisciplinary approach to the study of Natural Language?
- Intensive interaction with world class researchers from linguistics, philosophy, brain sciences, computer science, and psychology?
- Being part of an active graduate community of students from a variety of scientific fields?

If you answered these questions with a 'yes', you should apply to the LLCC's graduate program!

The LLCC provides a uniquely interactive graduate program, in coordination with the university's departments of linguistics, philosophy, computer science, cognitive science, psychology, and brain sciences (ELSC). Together with your LLCC advisors and your department of choice, you will be able to pursue studies that are tailored to your research interests.

At the LLCC, you will be a member of a vibrant community and have the opportunity to participate in a multitude of activities, including reading groups, workshops, conferences and mini-courses offered by top international researchers.

Full-time fellowships are available.

For application, please send the following documents:

- CV
- statement describing your research interests
- 2 reference letters
- transcript
